

Exodia '20 brings you D.I.S.R.U.P.T. - The idea generation game.

Many of the startups came from jokes cracked among friends, people who joked about dropping out - which although we don't suggest you :)

D.I.S.R.U.P.T. consists of 7 letters, each corresponding to a trigger and ANY idea of the world falls under one of these. People already have come up with ideas while playing this game at IIT Mandi and now prepare yourself to be the next. Who knows, you might get incubated before the end of the fest for They are always watching :)

Rules :

1. Teams of max 5 (individuals can always play but more the people, better the ideas)
2. Some objects will be given to participants. Randomly one of them will be selected and a random trigger will be launched
3. Participants will have to come up with as many ideas as they can
4. Finally plan one of the ideas on DISRUPT card and Pitch the Idea\
5. You will be given points on the following basis
 - a. XX points : Idea Sustainability
 - a. XX points : Cost Efficiency
 - a. XX points : Plan (DISRUPT card)
 - b. XX points : for each vote from the other teams
 - c. Bonus : One point for each valid* idea

* An idea is valid iff it falls under the given trigger and is original (Transplant trigger excluded)
